

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Aug. 15—(P)—It's a little bit like living in a dream.

Dressed for summer, men and women stroll the streets of Washington and Moscow, talking, looking in the shop windows.

They'd like a little more money, maybe, and some more comforts and they'd like to live a long time.

Particularly, they'd like to live a long time. But somehow they've been caught up in something, an age-old something:

The conflict between people, ideas, desires, politics, economics, power.

While they walk the streets, laughing in the sun, their officials are in buildings in Washington and Moscow, talking.

The officials, in uniforms or civilian clothes, are planning and they're talking of death, death that seems remote now, in the future, but still death.

What the officials in the Moscow buildings are saying the people on the streets there don't know. They're not told.

But jet fighters shoot overhead. And you can be sure the things the Moscow officials talk about are not much different from the things the Washington officials talk about.

There's the atomic bomb, which the Russians are trying to make or maybe have made.

And here airforce officials tell a committee about the B-36—

It can travel 8,000 miles, it can fly at 40,000 feet. In an overcast at 40,000 feet jet fighters can't stop it, and it can carry atom bombs.

The beauty of the atom bomb, the airforce men say, although they don't refer to it as beauty, is this:

When planes drop ordinary bombs on a city, they have to go back every few weeks to drop some more to prevent rebuilding. But when they drop an atom bomb they don't have to return for a long, long time.

And there's the little business of arms. Why, yes, a general tells congress, it's important to equip the French army in case of attack. Of the utmost importance, the general says.

And the Russians are probably talking about what an atom bomb could do to Washington, or Paris, and they're probably talking about a plane like the B-36 that could carry the bomb overseas.

Only a short time ago they let loose a dazzling pack of jet planes over Moscow—

But the sun is shining. Death seems far away. And the men and women, dressed for summer, stroll the streets. Life is like a tiger in their blood. They hope it never is subdued.

James Dilley, 17, Enlists in Army

James Dilley, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dilley, 711 Eastern Ave., enlisted Tuesday in the regular army for two years.

Dilley was sworn in at Fort Hayes near Columbus and is now at Fort Knox, Kentucky, for 11 weeks of basic training.

He went through the routine steps of an enlistee as he submitted three letters of recommendation and took a short test at the recruiting office here.

He underwent a medical examination and was given a few more tests at Fort Hayes and then took the oath.

Recruiting Sergeant Alfred Perry said men enlisting for a three-year period are given a choice of five branches of the army.

These include the infantry, coast artillery, field artillery, engineers and the armored corps.

Perry also announced that Washington C. H. now has an organized reserve for ex-servicemen.

The reserve meets every Wednesday at 7:30 P. M. in the Recruiting Office.

Veterans who wish to join or renew their reserve status are requested to contact either Perry or

Sales Tax Receipts Still Down in Area

Sales of prepaid tax receipts in this area continued to be below those of the same period last week, during the week ending July 30, Don H. Ebright, treasurer of the state, has announced.

Only two counties in this area, Madison and Greene, showed small gains. Fayette, Pickaway, Ross, Clinton and Highland counties showed decreases.

Fayette's receipts were $5,730.71 compared with $6,227.11 for the same week last year.

In the state, receipts dropped from $2,519,048 to $2,135,501 for the week.

CHAMP STEER SOLD

WILMINGTON—The grand champion 4-H club steer at the Clinton County Fair, was purchased by Bill Brooks, of the White House Restaurant, for $50 per 100 pounds, or $575.10. The average was more than $30 per head.

Miss Gorton set at rest the question of "what kind of riding club is it?" by explaining that there is no distinction between the devotees of the Western style and those who lean to the "flat saddle" style.

"The club is just for those who like to ride horseback no matter what kind of saddle used or the horse they ride," she declared.

Present plans call for headquarters at the Fairground. The horses would be kept in one of the barns farthest away from the race horse training activities. Arrangements are to be made for a caretaker or groom.

If things work out according to plan, a bridge path is to be laid out over that part of the 50-acre Fairground between the CCC Highway and the grandstand and race-track.

Two of the 16 charter members do not now own horses. Miss Gorton said, but she added others have extra horses enough to make up for that. It was also emphasized that ownership of a horse is not a prerequisite for club membership.

The new club popped into the spotlight Sunday at Leesburg when one of its members, Jim Liso, took second place in the judging of the "grand parade" in the horse show there.

Riding his pinto (spotted) horse "Salty," al decked out in full shining Western regalia, Liso was picked as the next to the best in the colorful opening event. He also placed fifth in the class for spotted horses.

Unanswered Questions In National Policy

Times change, and so do economic theories. This is well illustrated by a recent article in a nationally known publication in describing present government fiscal policies. It begins: "Reflation—revived inflation—is to be sought by government from here on out. Deflation, mild and brief, has proved too much for the White House to accept without trying to bring a turn back toward inflation."

Various stratagems will be employed—if the president has his way—in an effort to accomplish this. To quote the publication again, "The expressed hope is that, if the plan succeeds, it will not result in a new inflation of prices. The objective, instead, is an expanded use of credit."

President Truman's ideas on the subject were expressed, in part, in his midyear economic report to Congress, and in his last radio talk to the nation. First of all, he is holding tenaciously to his belief in the wisdom of big spending, even though a deficit results. For the current fiscal year, he wants a budget of about $42,000,000,000 which, it is reliably estimated, will mean a government operating loss in excess of $5,000,000,000.

He has, however, apparently changed his mind on the $4,000,000,000 tax increase he formerly favored. Some think he would even find tax decreases in certain fields acceptable. Sentiment in Congress would seem to favor this.

Not so long ago, the White House backed a "tight money" policy. Here, too, the president's stand seems entirely different now. Stock markets margin requirements have been reduced. The controls on installment buying have been abandoned. Both the president and Congress favor liberalized credit plans for new housing.

The U. S. News sums it up thus: "policies of government, basically, will be aimed at stimulating a broader use of borrowed money, both by government itself and by private individuals and industry. This plan to revive prosperity, the president predicts, eventually will lead to a national income of $300,000,000,000.

The president's Council of Economic Advisors put the situation in these words: "The mere fact that the Federal government is currently withdrawing well-over $40,000,000,000 a year from private-income channels and is disbursing a like or even greater amount into the market and income stream means that the government is already the most influential factor in the current operation of the economy."

The chief point for consideration in all this, however, points to the unanswered question as to how long this kind of spending beyond income can be maintained without exhausting the nation.

Anybody worthy of credit can keep borrowing money to pay bills beyond his income for a time, but this cannot be done indefinitely without bankruptcy.

They do say all men like red dresses. They like 'em on women in general, they like 'em on little girls, and they like 'em especially on their wives.

The only trouble is that so many men see red when the bills come in.

She Doesn't Know Own Strength

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK — (AP) — Men fall head over heels for hazel-eyed Gale Vance. She really throws them.

One reason they find this attractive blond so irresistible is that she teaches jujitsu and judo. Miss Vance is one of the few lady instructors in these bone-bending pastimes.

Hal Boyle "Jujitsu is really just a sport," she said. "But judo is the science of dirty fighting—you use it when you're out for the kill."

"I like to teach dirty fighting. It's the quickest way of disposing of your opponent."

Some feminine athletes are built like telephone booths. This isn't true of Gale. Her muscles are well disposed. They never bulge. They ripple. Her physical charm as well as her physical strength have won her several offers to become a professional wrestler.

"I turned them down," she said. "It is too undignified."

During the war Gale was a member of a judo team that toured army camps and demonstrated deadly tricks to the troops.

I saw her in Manila in 1945, and her 225-pound partner was wearing a broken wrist.

"I guess I put on a little too much pressure," said Gale, "but he should have told me I was hurting him."

Miss Vance at present is teaching jujitsu to vacationers at Ma Holder's Youngs Gap Hotel, a resort in the Catskills.

"Many wives are eager to learn the holds," she said. "They want to be able to throw their husbands over their heads. But I teach them to throw a person over their hips instead. It's much easier."

Jujitsu, incidentally, has a number of advantages for the forlorn female living in a man's world.

"It is a wonderful way reduce," said Gale, "and a girl needs to learn only a few holds to be able to deal with an annoying subway wolf."

"If you want to discourage him quietly without making a scene," said Gale, "one way is to put your heel on his shinbone and press down—hard."

"An elbow is a very handy article. You just give him the sharp end of it in his face. If he's a tall guy and you can't reach his face, jab the elbow fast into his solar plexus or his ribs. You'd be surprised how easy a rib breaks. Of course the knee is always good, too, but you have to be in the right position to use it."

"Generally I try to teach the girls how to get away from a man—rather than to kill the guy."

Once Miss Vance was bothered herself by a Broadway masher. She finally turned on him and said modestly, "I teach jujitsu." The man took the hint and went mashing elsewhere.

Another time she was walking alone at night to her home in the Bronx when a scallawag sprang out and grabbed at her purse.

"I clamped on a wrist lock, kicked his feet out from under him and walked on," she said. "I felt like kicking him while he was down, but I didn't want to take an unfair advantage. I didn't bother to see if he was hurt. He didn't deserve to be looked at."

She gets some unusual pupils. Recently a gentle old white-haired lady came to her.

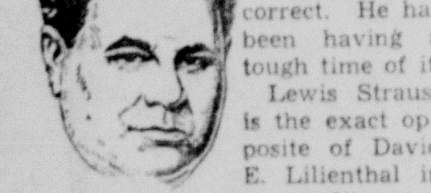

"My son won't do what I tell him anymore," she said. "I want to learn some kind of a trick so I can hold him still while I give him a good spanking."

"How old is your boy?" Asked Gale.

"He's 45," said the old lady, "but he still needs spanking."

Strauss, the Solid Man of AEC

By George E. Sokolsky

When the members of the Atomic Energy Commission were appointed in 1946, I wrote that Admiral Lewis Strauss would find himself in opposition to his colleagues. This has proved to be correct. He has been having a tough time of it.

Lewis Strauss is the exact opposite of David E. Lillenthal in personality, experience and outlook. A believer in government by law, trained by Herbert Hoover, he could not be bullied or high-pressured. He has a long record of successes behind him when he came to the commission. Bureaucrats dislike the self-made man, the "Horatio Alger" type. They prefer the obedient servant who comes up through channels. Most of all, they hate the successful business man who has earned a fortune.

considered confirmation of his appointment, he admitted that two of the other members of the AEC were his nominations so that he began with a clear majority of the commission. It is interesting to note that there have been two resignations from the commission—namely, the very men who were hand-picked by Lillenthal.

Lillenthal's weakness as an administrator is that regardless of the law, he knows what is best for us, and that is what we are going to get. His apparently uncompromising stand on his right to award a bureaucrat's approach to the law.

It is now clear that Strauss has long been at odds with Lillenthal on the question of adherence to the atomic energy act as passed by congress. According to the public testimony recently printed, Lillenthal announced that in over 500 decisions of the AEC, there had been dissents in only a few cases, and these from only one commissioner—Admiral Strauss. When Strauss was called to the stand, he made it quite clear that he had voted "no" in a number of these cases, he said, concerned some aspect of the security of the country.

The vital issue came to a head in the recent secret conferences at Blair House. Briefly stated, it is: should the know-how on making atomic bombs be given to any other country and if so, should it be done by the AEC on its own judgment or only by consent of congress as provided in the atomic energy act? Strauss took the latter position. That is the consensus of opinion of the American people and of congress.

The following paragraph from a letter from Strauss to Senator McMahon on June 24 states the case:

"—May I be permitted to express my vigorous dissent from a philosophy which has been advanced before your committee, namely, that parts of the McMahon act are not to be taken literally. That is a doctrine to which I cannot subscribe. If parts of laws are not to be taken literally, then the time and effort devoted to careful drafting are wasted, and we shall have to look for some other medium than words to codify them. For the equal and uniform administration of law is one of the pillars of our system of government, and if public administrators generally were to construe laws other than literally, we would have as many interpretations as there are individual points of view. That would mean complete administrative disorder. Certainly the provisions of the atomic energy act must be honored literally, or congress should change them deliberately. If any of its provisions are ambiguous after nearly three years on the statute book, the ambiguity should be clarified by formal action. The implied alternative—is to me unthinkable."

Diet and Health Use of Penicillin Not Always Needed

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
EXPERIENCE has shown that a number of people easily become sensitive or allergic to penicillin. Though they can take it once or twice without reactions, later doses may cause severe effects in the form of skin rashes or generalized sickness.

Thus, it is a mistake to use penicillin for any and every mild infection which comes along. The person who becomes sensitized to penicillin by taking it for conditions which could be well handled in some other way may deprive himself of its use in a severe infection when it will be greatly needed, and that is why we always say do not take medicine unless your doctor prescribes it. And it is important, as a general rule, never to use penicillin in a hit or miss fashion, but to reserve it always for treatment of conditions in which it is known that the germs causing the trouble are sensitive to it—that is, the penicillin will check their growth.

Sample Test
If it is suspected that a patient is sensitive to penicillin before it is employed, a sample test, called a patch test, should be made. This is carried out by placing the penicillin preparation on a small piece of gauze which is fastened to the skin for a 24-hour period. If the person is sensitive to the penicillin, a red area will occur where it is in contact with the skin.

It has been noted that persons who have had fungus infections, such as ringworm, are more likely than others to become sensitive to penicillin.

Penicillin should not be used on the skin for longer than five to seven days, and its use should be stopped at the first signs of any reaction.

If a person is known to be sensitive to penicillin, it may be possible to decrease this sensitivity by giving gradually increased doses.

Should Be Stopped
When reaction occurs to the penicillin treatment, it should be stopped at once unless there is some critical need for it. This is especially necessary in cases of skin eruptions.

So-called antihistamine drugs may be used to eliminate the reaction symptoms. It is suggested that one of them, known as benadryl, may be given by injection into a vein and that the penicillin treatment may be continued. Injections into a vein of calcium preparations and nicotinic acid, which is a part of the vitamin B-complex, may also be tried.

When the reaction symptoms subside, it is suggested that a test dose of the penicillin be given by injection into a muscle to note whether or not the reaction recurs. If there is no reaction, the dose of penicillin may be gradually increased until the full dosage is utilized.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
I. L. C.: Is a nervous stomach caused by excessive drinking, eating too fast, or eating fried or fat foods?
Answer: All of these things may lead to stomach disturbance. Usually, the source of the difficulty is gallbladder disease, ulcer of the stomach or intestines, constipation, or chronic appendicitis. However, to determine the exact cause of the symptoms, a thorough study of the intestinal tract must be made; X-rays may be necessary.

Penicillin should not be used on the skin for longer than five to seven days, and its use should be stopped at the first signs of any reaction.

Features at the Theaters

From Xenia to Hollywood. That's the route veteran actor Charley Grapewin took and he has appeared in 125 motion pictures since leaving his birthplace in Xenia.

Charley made his first picture in 1896 and claims a longer career than any other screen actor—52 years.

His most notable parts were as Jeeter Lester in "Tobacco Road," the underworld lawyer in "Johnny Apollo," and the father in "Grapes of Wrath."

Charley comes back to this vicinity once more but not in person. He appears in the motion picture "Sand."

FAYETTE THEATER
"Sand" will be featured at the Fayette this week through Tuesday.

Mark Stevens, Coleen Gray and Rory Calhoun play the leads in this story about a prize horse that brings love to two people and one of the best fights this season to a Hollywood movie.

Will James wrote the story and Charley Grapewin, who was born in Xenia, will play the part of "Doug."

Wednesday and Thursday, a film adapted from a novel by Philip Wylie, "Night Unto Night," should entertain theatergoers.

It tells an entrancing story through Ronald Reagan and Viveca Lindfors, who are brought together by their mutual emotional problems.

The solution to the problems threatening to shatter their lives comes unexpectedly and points its own moral to overcome life's problems.

The hard-riding "Younger Brothers" arrive on Friday and Saturday. Wayne Morris, Bruce Bennett and James Brown make up the trio of brothers who turn straight and are forced to shoot their straightest to clear their name.

STATE THEATER
Starting with the midnight show at the State Theater Saturday and showing through Tuesday is "Massacre River."

Guy Madison, Rory Calhoun and Johnny Sands are the three young cavalry officers serving in Indian country after the Civil War. Cathy Downs and Carole Mathews are the sweet young things co-starring in this frontier romance spiced with Indian fights.

On Wednesday and Thursday, "The True Glory," a picture of General Eisenhower's fight from the invasion of Normandy to the fall of Berlin, will be featured.

It is reported to be an uncensored filming of the actual battle scenes.

The other half of the war is related in the second feature of the twin-bill as government files produce the material for the true story of the surrender of Japan in "Burma Victory."

Ending the week is a program on Friday and Saturday which offers "The Denver Kid" with "Rocky" Lane and his stallion, Black Jack, as the main attraction.

Rounding out the billing are the "Adventures of Frank and Jesse James" and a Popeye cartoon.

PALACE THEATER
For four days, through Wednesday, June Allyson, Peter Lawford and Joan McCracken will entertain in the technicolor musical, "Good News," at the Palace Theater.

The picture takes place in a college setting against a background of the roaring twenties.

On the same program, Monte Hale helps clear up the issue of statehood for Washington and he runs the badmen out of the territory in "South of Rio."

The Dead End Kids in "Junior G-Men," provide the variety which balances the program.

The end of the week finds "High Seas" rolling in for Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Glenn Ford stars in this action film which also brings Evelyn Keyes and Claire Trevor with it.

The second picture on the billing is "Cass Timberlane," packed with emotional dynamite in the form of Lana Turner, Spencer Tracy and Zachary Scott.

CCC DRIVE-IN THEATER
Monday brought an action drama out at the CCC Drive-In Theater in "The Undercover Man."

It is a well-acted film based on an article by a chief of the U. S. Secret Service. Glenn Ford and Nina Foch head a cast which includes new faces and realistic character acting.

The picture for Tuesday and Wednesday was not announced but on Thursday a western, "Adventures in Silverado," should prove more enjoyable than the usual cowboy story.

This picture has an unusual twist at the ending of a story suggested by a Robert Louis Stevenson novel. William Bishop and Gloria Henry take the leads.

"Race Street" heads the double-feature on Friday and Saturday. It is a cops and robbers picture supported by the screen experience of George Raft and William Bendix. Marilyn Maxwell is the female bait.

Mountain music with Roy Acuff and his fiddle is the main contest of "Smoky Mountain Melody," the second film on the billing. Roy is a reformer in this picture.

59 Kids at County Children's Home 'Well and Healthy'

'Well-fed and healthy' was the way Dr. James E. Rose described the 59 children at the County Children's Home after examining them Thursday.

Although Dr. Rose's aid is available whenever needed, the checkup last week is a thorough examination given each child once a year.

Dr. Rose said the children who have been at the home for two or three years appeared in better physical condition than the others.

The doctor expressed his appreciation for the assistance of Miss Gretchen Darlington and Mrs. James Cooper, nurses from the County Board of Health.

The nurses helped with the records and administered the eye examinations.

Mrs. Neil Helfrich, Dr. Rose's nurse, also assisted the doctor.

Dr. Rose is paid for each case requiring medical care as it comes up. Mr. David Whiteside, executive-secretary of the Board of the Children's Home, said the cost of care provided the home is reasonable and seems to be given special consideration by doctors.

F. C. Maddox Dies In New Jersey

Friends and relatives here have received word of the sudden death Saturday of F. C. Maddox in Plainfield, N. J.

Mrs. John Dial, sister-in-law of the deceased, and Mrs. Peaslee Stokesbury both of the Washington C. H. community, have gone to Plainfield for funeral services which will be held Tuesday evening at the Runyon Funeral Home in Plainfield, with committal services set for 10 A. M. Wednesday.

Among other survivors is the deceased's wife, the former Nell Stuckey, formerly of Washington C. H.

The younger was bitten by Lee Porter's dog while with a group of boys getting a drink from the well on the Porter farm.

William Silverman of Dayton was bitten at Bookwalter.

Donald Lange, county sanitarian, is making periodic observations of the animals.

"Neither dog shows the symptoms of rabies so far," said Lange. He explains that, if either dog has rabies, it will die in about a week.

Lange added that the two dogs who bit persons earlier in the month have been released from observation.

No Proposal Yet, By Vice President

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15—(P)—Vice President Barkley said today he has not even discussed the possibility of marriage with Mrs. Carleton S. Hadley, St. Louis widow.

The vice president, emerging from a cabinet session, told White House reporters:

"The matter of a wedding has never been mentioned or discussed, even on the fringes, between us."

Barkley described Mrs. Hadley, with whom he attended a baseball game last weekend as "a very lovely and charming woman." But he specifically denied that there would be a wedding in Paducah, Ky., tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15—(P)—Multi-billion dollar measures to aid in the construction of medium cost homes now have the approval of both the Senate and House Banking Committees.

The House group okayed its $3,500,000,000 measure last night. It differs from the Senate bill in that it doesn't include a project for $1,000,000,000 in direct loans to housing cooperatives.

The bills call for government assistance in the form of mortgage

Moose and Good Hope Both Lose Ball Games

The Washington C. H. Senators, who now call Ashville home, backed up fine pitching with heavy hitting to thrash the Jeffersonville Cubs, 9-3 and 6-0, in a South Central Ohio League twin-bill Sunday.

In the bunched-up S.W.O. League race, the Washington C. H. Moose were knocked out of a first-place tie at Wilson Field as Frankfort shamed them by 2-1.

Good Hope lost its opportunity to take over the leader's spot when Bowersville clipped them by a 5-3 score in the most crucial game of the day.

South Central Ohio League
The Senators unveiled Jack Harris in the second game at Jeffersonville and the new right-hander baffled the Cubs as he turned in a two-hit shutout.

It was all Washington in the opener as they jumped off to a one-run lead in the first inning and scored in four more innings to win going away, 9-3.

Woodruff had good control as he walked just one man while striking out five to gain credit for the victory.

Although the Cubs committed seven misplays, the Senators pounded out ten hits to earn the runs needed to win.

Tracy was the slugger, getting a triple as one of his three hits. Kirby, who was to come through in grand style in the nightcap, slammed the other triple and added a single in the opener.

W. Smith got two hits and Brakfield and Evans each got one to account for the Cubs' safeties.

Dumford was the losing pitcher. He struck out five and gave up five free passes. His downfall was assured by the weak support of his mates afield.

Jack Harris, a recent acquisition from Columbus made his debut in the nightcap and had trouble with just one Cub, Spears, who got two hits.

The new Senator moundsman had excellent control, striking out nine and walking one.

The Senators gave him support by crowding three runs across in the initial frame. They added two more in the sixth and one in the seventh to ice the game.

Kirby batted 1.000, getting a triple and two singles in three times at bat.

Belcher got the other triple and

There is no more reason for throwing away a good tire casing just because the tread is worn smooth than for discarding a pair of shoes because the rubber heels are worn down.

The tread of a tire, like the rubber heel on a shoe, is the least expensive part. Now, by the patented Hawkinson Process, we are able to replace tire treads just as successfully as the cobbler replaces rubber heels.

Swede Whipped By Jersey Joe

Championship Hopes Of Walcott Revived

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 15—(AP)—Ancient Jersey Joe Walcott, grinning from ear to ear, stretched out in his hotel room today and told the world to bring on it leading heavyweights—he'd fight 'em all.

While his manager Felix Boccicchio nodded in agreement, Jersey Joe, loser twice to Joe Louis in heavyweight title fights, said he planned to take a European exhibition tour to include Holland, England, Belgium, France and possibly Spain.

He figures he is among the top contenders for Ezzard Charles' NBA version of the heavyweight crown, following his slick performance in knocking out Sweden's Olle Tanberg in the fifth stanza of their scheduled 12-round bout last night.

"I want another crack at Charles," said the veteran warrior from Camden, N. J., who was outpointed by Ez earlier in the summer. "I feel certain I will beat him the next time."

Boccicchio, the bustling little manager, thought so, too.

"The Tanberg affair was a clean fight, and Joe's victory will keep him up in the contender's division next to Charles."

Would Jersey Joe be willing to fight anyone other than Charles? "Sure he would," said the excited Boccicchio, who received the congratulations of U. S. Ambassador to Sweden H. Freeman Andrews after the battle. "If the Bruce Woodcock-Lee Savold match comes off in September as scheduled, we'll gladly take on the winner."

World Record Broken For Throwing Discus

TAVASTEHUS, Finland, Aug. 15—(AP)—For the third time this year, Fortune Gordien of the University of Minnesota has bettered the listed world record for the discus throw.

Competing in a Finnish track meet last night, the American athlete made a toss of 186 feet and 3-5 inches. This easily eclipsed the existing world record of 181 feet, 6 3-8 inches by Italy's Adolfo Consolini.

East Shuts Out West

CHICAGO, Aug. 15—(AP)—The East beat the West 4-0 yesterday in the 17th annual Negro American League baseball All-Star game. About 35,000 fans at Comiskey Park saw the western division team scrape up only two hits off three East pitchers.

The losers could very well be knocked out of the running for good.

Browns Look Good As Hornets Beaten In Pro-Grid Opener

TOLEDO, Aug. 15—(AP)—Cleveland's Browns may not win a fourth straight all-American pro football conference title this fall—but don't tell that to the 13,000 fans who watched them drub the Chicago Hornets here yesterday.

Coch Paul Brown's crew was snappy and workmanlike as it polished over the revamped and supposedly revitalized Hornets, 21-0. It was the midwest's first pro football exhibition of the season.

The Browns completed 11 of 12 passes and held the Hornets to a net gain of 45 yards on the ground and 77 via the airways.

The Chicagoans threatened only once, when Ray Ramsey returned a punt 58 yards to the Browns' 10. Johnny Clement plunged to the two yard line as the half ended.

By the time the Chicagoans made their lone bid the Browns already were in front, 14-0. Otto Graham scored on a 29-yard run in the first period. He decided to leg it after being trapped while attempting a pass.

Ed Sustersic, a rookie fullback, scored the two other touchdowns in the second and third periods. Sustersic bucked into pay dirt from three yards and one-yard out. Lou (the toe) Grosza, as usual, kicked the extra points.

The Browns would have completed 12 out of 12 passes except that end Horace Gillom dropped one of Graham's tosses in a clear field.

The Clevelanders dominated the statistics, rolling up 11 first downs to five and 160 yards rushing to 45. But Coach Brown had two things to worry about today—(1) the Browns allowed the Chicagoans to return six punts for 237 yards and (2) the way the San Francisco 49ers dusted off the Buffalo Bills, 21-10, in an exhibition game at San Francisco yesterday. The 49ers, of course, have been the Browns' toughest rivals in the AAC.

Haddix Loses In Tough Game

(By the Associated Press)
St. Paul's Saints, holding first place in the American Association—four games ahead of Indianapolis—will face last-place Toledo tonight. The Mudhens are fresh from a double victory.

Louisville's fourth place Colonels beat Kansas City, 2-1, and then lost, 4-0, and third place Milwaukee whipped Columbus, 3-2, before a 1-1 nightcap tie ended by darkness in other games Sunday. Harvey Haddix pitched the 14-inning opener.

Toledo won both victories with rallies Sunday. Shortstop John Bero drove in all four first game runs with two homers, and in the second game he homered with two, climaxing a five run seventh frame.

Milwaukee had to go 14 innings to beat Columbus. The second game was called in the sixth as a tie. Roy Hartsfield homered on Harvey Haddix' first pitch in the 14th frame of the opener to spell a triumph for Brewer hurler Norman Roy—his 10th in 13 games and fourth in extra innings. Howie Moss' single in the sixth saved a tie for the Brewers in the nightcap.

Reds Win Double Bill To Keep Out of Cellar

(By the Associated Press)
The Cincinnati Reds drew easier and sweeter breaths today as they came home to open a seven-game Crosley Field stand with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

They were four whole games away from the National League's dank, damp cellar, two of them picked up in a sweep over the dungeoned dwellers, the Chicago Cubs, in a Windy City double bill yesterday. The scores: 4-2, in the 12-inning opener, and 8-0.

Johnny Vander Meer, up-and-down southpaw, turned in a five-hitter to notch his fourth victory in the nightcap. He has suffered seven reverses. Ken Raffensberger made his record 12-12 as he went the distance in the first game.

The Reds got 10 timely hits off Bob Rush, the loser, and Emil Kish, Harry (The Hat) Walker paced the attack with three singles in five trips.

"Ole Professor" Raffensberger had a 2-0 shutout going into the ninth. The Cubs tied the score in the inning as Andy Pafko singled, Roy Smalley doubled and shortstop Virg Stallcup let Gene Mauch's grounder get through his legs for a two-run error.

An error also helped the Reds win in the 12th. Lloyd Merriman and Walker Cooper singled. Stallcup hit a perfect double play ball to relief pitcher Warren Hacker and the pitcher, after bluffing Merriman back to third, threw the ball into centerfield instead of second base. Merriman scored. Claude Corbitt replaced Cooper as base runner and, after reaching third on Jimmy Bloodworth's bunt, scored as Ted Kluszewski hit into a force play.

Boxer Crowd Yankees

A penny for Casey Stengel's thoughts today as once again the manager of the New York Yankees feels the hot breath of the oncoming Boston Red Sox on the back of his neck.

Wasn't it just seven weeks ago Stengel wrote off the Red Sox? "This is it," he exclaimed jubilantly on July 4 after the Yankees had whipped the Sox for the fifth straight time "the Red Sox won't bother us any more. We knocked them right out of the race. They'll never recover."

The Sox, piling up 24 hits and 18 bases on balls, overpowered the Washington Senators twice yesterday, 9-3 and 13-4, to pick up another game on the Yankees. Stengel's crew whipped Philadelphia, 4-2, but the Athletics came back to win the second game of the doubleheader, 4-3.

The twin triumph gave the Red Sox a record of 32 victories in 41 games since that fateful July 4. They've now won 18 of 22 in their latest home stand. Five in a row have come at the expense of the Senators, whom they meet 10 more times. In one, they hold an 8-3 lead after six innings. The game will be completed later this week. Boston also has seven games left with the Yankees.

Dodgers Take Lead

The Brooklyn Dodgers regained the lead from St. Louis in the tight National League race, winning from Boston, 7-2 while Pittsburgh was trouncing the Cardinals, 4-0. This turn of events put the Brooks one game in front of the Redbirds.

The third place New York Giants remained 12 full games off the pace despite their two victories over the Philadelphia Phils, 8-1 and 1-0.

Lefty Mel Parnell turned in his 18th triumph for the Boston Red Sox with a seven-hitter in the opener against Washington. Dom Dimaggio sparked the Red Sox attack with a home run and two singles.

Junior Stephens hit his 31st home run in the second game with two mates on base to help Jack Kramer beat the Senators' Paul Calvert.

Alex Kellner scored his fourth victory over the Yankees and his 15th of the season as the Athletics beat the league leaders for a split of the double header. Bob Porterfield, aided by Joe Page, was credited with winning the opener for the Yankees.

The third place Cleveland Indians advanced to within five games of the top by winning both ends of a doubleheader from Chicago White Sox, 4-3 and 5-0. Bob Lemon hurled his 14th victory in the opener, and Mike Garcia his

All-Star Game Won by South

MASSILON, Aug. 15—(AP)—Thanks to 195-pound Jim (Boxcar) Bailey, southern Ohio's high school football All Stars hold a one game edge over the north in the annual classic.

Bailey, star Negro from Hamilton, raced 39 and 60 yards for touchdowns as the South defeated the Northern Stars 20 to 13 Saturday night. Center Glenn Sample of Cincinnati intercepted Bob Burson's pass and raced 22 yards for the first South score in the first three minutes of play.

The North, behind the passing of Mark Scarr of Barborton, scored a couple of quick touchdowns in the final period, but the South clung to a lead gained by scores in each of the first three periods.

The series now stands at two wins for the South to one win for the North. The 1947, contest ended in a tie.

Heat Wave Here Just Hangs On

Weather Forecast
For Weekend Misses

The weatherman missed his guess on the weather, for the week end was just about as hot as some of the previous days, and the humidity made it seem plenty warm.

As a matter of fact the mercury soared to 90 on Sunday, and the low point during the night was 70 degrees, or somewhat warmer than usual.

By Monday at 8 A. M. it had reached only 71, with indications the temperature would halt somewhere in the upper eighties during the day.

Saturday's rainfall here was 41 of an inch, and this coupled with 67 inches the two previous days, brought the total to over one inch.

However in parts of the county Saturday's rainfall was much heavier than it was here, and in other parts the precipitation was limited to light showers.

Nearly all parts of the county have shared recent rains, and the moisture is now believed sufficient to finish maturing the corn crop.

Continued showers are in the offing, with not too much heat, the weatherman indicates.

Balloon Barrage Hits Farm Here

Four colored balloons dropped from the sky on Paul Blackmore's farm at Jeffersonville last week.

Each one had a small ticket attached to it; so Blackmore gathered in the balloons and read the ticket.

"Keep this ticket. Notify the nearest newspaper of finding it," was the message the balloons carried.

He continued reading: "This ticket entitles the bearer to one free admission to the Greenfield Sesqui-centennial Fair, September 2-3-4-5"

So, if you should see a balloon falling in the distance, here's the tip on it.

Five of them have fallen on Xenia. It is not known whether they are released from Greenfield or near here.

Trucks Tangle Up Saturday Evening

Two trucks, both headed toward Washington C. H., were damaged in a collision at the intersection of the Gormley Road with the Greenfield Road (Route 70) about 8 P. M. Saturday.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Foster, who investigated the accident, said Robert E. Carson, Greenfield, attempted to pass William Pollard of Washington C. H. and cut in too close in attempting to make a turn into Gormley Road. Both vehicles were damaged considerably, but no one was injured.

193 Rural Pupils

High School as offering some basis for thought along this line, recognizing, of course, that any plan of this scope would require agreement on the part of other school districts of the county to join in such planning.

These same proponents of a one county-city high school assert that for a compact county the size of Fayette, with a population between 20,000 and 23,000, five high schools in this territory are too many, considering the limited number of high school students. They further argue that costs could be materially lessened per pupil, and with the increased enrollment for one such high school, a broader school curriculum could be offered.

This is only one of several ideas which have been advanced by various individuals interested in the future of the schools here. They are being brought out in connection with the recent suggestion that the Washington C. H. Board of Education make future plans for a long range study of school facility problems of this community, aided by a citizens' research group, before any future building plans or other extension of school facilities, are definitely decided upon.

County Courts

NEW SUIT FILED

Following withdrawal of a previous divorce suit filed by Leona McNutt against Harry McNutt, and cross petition filed by the defendant in the action a new divorce suit was filed in common pleas court by Leona McNutt against Harry McNutt.

The parties were married May 30, 1947, and have one child, custody of whom is sought by the plaintiff, who is represented by Hill and Hill. The plaintiff charges gross neglect of duty.

They were taken before Justice of the Peace, P. S. Ludwick, who held them to the grand jury under $500 bond each.

Unable to furnish bond at the time they were returned to the county jail until bond is furnished, or the grand jury meets.

Resurfacing Work Is Now Under Way

Blue Rock Quarries started the work of resurfacing East Street, from North Street to Washington Avenue, Monday.

The street was closed and a crew started cleaning the street and filling depressions prior to applying the hot mix which is to be laid two inches thick over the present brick paving.

The work was to have started last week, but The Dayton Power and Light Company had not completed work of installing gas connections for central heat users on the street.

Several Drivers Are Fined Here

Excessive Speed Was Leading Cause

State Highway Patrolmen and police Sunday cited a number of drivers for action before Police Court Justice R. H. Sites, and they were fined during special sessions of the court Sunday.

David L. Sweeney, for driving 65 miles or more on a state route, drew $15 and costs. Patrolman M. E. Brinkley filed the charge.

Fred J. Stump, Bainbridge, drew $15 and costs for driving 52 miles an hour on Columbus Avenue. He asked the court what he would do if the fine was not paid.

"You'll stay right here until you do pay it" he was informed by Sites. He paid.

Charles W. Clark, clocked at 70 miles, by Patrolman B. W. Frye, drew $15 and costs, and Charles E. Clayton, for driving a motor vehicle which was in an unsafe condition, drew $10 and costs.

Two plain drunks also were up for the usual $10 and costs.

Fish Fry Benefit For County Band

The Fayette County Band will take it easy Thursday, while the Bloomingburg Band Mothers fry the fish at the Bloomingburg school cafeteria.

This is the third annual fish fry held for the benefit of the band. Uniforms have been bought and new instruments will be made possible through the proceeds from these events.

The affair will begin at 11 A. M. with the band giving a concert in the evening.

The band has accepted an invitation to play at the State Fair and is anxiously waiting for final word from the officials in Columbus.

W. L. Peterson Buys Sinclair Station

W. L. Peterson, who has been with the Edward Payne Builders Supplies firm for 30 years, has purchased the Sinclair Service Station, corner of South Fayette and East streets, from Howard H. (Bennie) Lloyd and Ernest C. (Pappy) Mitman, who have operated the plant the past two years.

Peterson, who takes over the plant Tuesday, will be assisted by Robert Clickner and Peterson's son, Thomas.

Mitman will return to the em-

Reward Offered To Get Burglars

Robert Lansing, proprietor of Bob's Dry Cleaning plant on the Columbus Highway a half mile from Washington C. H. has offered a reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the burglars who, Friday night, broke into his establishment and carried off some 35 pieces of men's clothing, chiefly lightweight trousers.

In the meantime Sheriff Orland Hays and deputies are continuing their investigation into the crime.
